COMES NOW, South Dakota Secretary of State Chris Nelson ("Defendant"), and the State of South Dakota, by and through the undersigned counsel, and hereby submits this Statement of Material Facts in support of their Motions for Summary Judgment. The Statements included below are, in part, based on the Affidavit of Secretary of State Nelson, (Doc. 17-1) and incorporated herein by reference.

1. Chris Nelson was the properly elected and qualified Secretary of State for the State of South Dakota from January of 2003 until January of 2011.

2. Under SDCL § 23-7-7 a permit to carry a concealed pistol is issued by the sheriff of the county in which the applicant resides pursuant to the terms of SDCL § 23-7-7.1.

3. The Secretary of State charged with the responsibility of creating an application form, filing the application and issuing the “official permit” under SDCL § 23-7-8.

4. SDCL § 23-7-8.1 subscribes the content of and requires the Secretary of State to create the “official permit”.

5. Plaintiff’s Complaint does not challenge the constitutionality of SDCL § 23-7-8 or 8.1. See generally Complaint (Doc. 1 and Amended Complaint Doc. 31)

6. The issuance of the “official permit” is a ministerial act that involves no discretion on the part of the Secretary of State.

7. The “official permit” is merely a formal laminated version of the temporary permit issued by the Sheriff.

8. The only statutory provision challenged by Plaintiff is SDCL § 23-7-7.1. See generally Complaint (Doc. 1 and Amended Complaint Doc. 31)

9. The Secretary of State has no discretion to grant or deny a permit under SDCL § 23-7-7.1.

10. The Sheriff possesses the sole ability to deny or grant a concealed pistol permit.

11. The Secretary of State did not make the decision on whether to issue a concealed pistol permit to Wayne Smith.

12. If a permit is granted by the Sheriff, the Secretary of State is required by statute to issue the "official permit."

Dated this 31st day of January, 2011.
